Rolla Herald (Rolla, Missouri)

W. E. Webber Dead.

On the 6th day of July, 1899, William Elijah Webber died at his home near Edgar Springs. His death will be keenly felt by a large number of relation and a concourse of friends throughout the county. We cannot say, however, that the end was a surprise, for he had been a sufferer from consumption for the past two years.

Mr. Webber was born on the 5th day of April, 1845, and at the time of his death was 54 years, 3 months and one day old. He was the son of John and Eliza Jane Webber, who were among the earliest settlers of Phelps County, and were the first residents of Rolla, the old Webber house was torn down only a few years ago.)

Mr. Webber resided in Rolla until about 12 years ago, when, on account of his health he moved to his farm.

On March 19th, 1868, Mr. Webber was married to Miss Maria Susan Williams, of Rolla, and of this union 8 children were born.

He was an esteemed and valuable citizen, a good neighbor, a christian gentleman, a kind father and a loyal friend.

The funeral was held from his late residence Friday afternoon, in the presence of an immense throng of sorrowing relatives and sympathizing friends, Rev. J. J. Watts officiating. The beautiful and impressive ceremony of the masonic lodge was read, and the last tribute of respect paid to his memory by the members. He had been a member of the Masonic fraternity for a number of years, two years ago taking his demit from Rolla lodge and thereafter affiliating with Edgar Springs lodge.

He leaves a devoted wife and 7 children, who mourn his loss. The HERALD and its friends sympathize deeply with the family in their great loss.

Maria was born on 20 Feb 1841 in Bedford County, Virginia, died on 31 Mar 1900 in Phelps County, Missouri at age 59, and was buried in Smith Cemetery.

Rolla Herald (Rolla, Missouri)

In Memory.

Died at her residence near Edgar Springs, on Saturday evening, March 31st, at 6:30 o'clock, Maria Susan Weber, wife of W. E. Weber, deceased.

Mrs. Weber was born in Bedford county, Virginia, on Feb. 20th, 1841, and was at the time of her death, 59 years, 1 month and 11 days old. She came to Missouri when quite young, and on March 19th, 1868, was united in marriage to W. E. Weber. To this union 8 children were born, six of whom survive her.

The death of Mrs. Weber is doubly sad from this fact. On July 6, 1899, her husband died, after a lingering illness from consumption and on Sept. 24, 1899, her youngest daughter, Blanche, died, from the same disease, and now her youngest son, Cleveland, is lying very low with pneumonia fever.

Mrs. Weber was indeed a good woman. A loving, kind and indulgent mother, the care of her children and home were the uppermost thoughts in her mind. She will be much missed. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Smith burying ground in the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives, Rev. J. J. Watts officiating.

The following relatives from a distance were present: J. M. Williams, Washington, D. C., Chas. Stewart and wife, Burlington, Iowa; W. E. Weber and wife and Charles L. Woods and wife of Rolla.

"In Memoriam"

"Annie J. Webber was born in Phelps County, Missouri, on her father's farm near Rolla, June 16, 1848. During the Civil War she came to Saline County, Ill., to complete her education in the Raleigh schools, and there became acquainted with Jack Webber, who wooed her ardently, following her to her Missouri home, and brought her back to Illinois to become his bride. They were married at Eldorado, Illinois, March 20, 1876, by Rev. Hutchison.

To this union were born three children, John Henry, December 28, 1877, William J., February 8, 1880, who died in infancy; May Olive, September 18, 1885.

Her paternal grandfather, who was also the grandfather of her husband, A. J. Webber, was John M. Webber, the immigrant ancestor of the Webber family in America, who was born in Holland, on the banks of the Rhine, November 10, 1794. When twelve years old he came with his mother to the United States, and for several years lived in Philadelphia where he was educated. Going to Tennessee in 1823, he lived in Rutherford County, until 1830, when with his family, he came to Saline County, Illinois and purchased land near Galatia, where he improved the fine estate now known as the Webber Homestead. He was there prosperously employed tilling the soil until his death, in 1867. He married in Philadelphia, Elizabeth McQueen, who was born in Virginia in 1793, and died on the home farm in 1869, having survived him but two years.

Obit

Descendants of John WEBBER

John Webber was a small lad when he came to Saline County from Tennessee, growing to manhood on the old homestead, remaining with his parents until 19 years of age. September 17, 1840, he married Eliza J. Powell, who was born in Gallatin County, Illinois, January 22, 1824. In 1844 he moved to Phelps County, Missouri, and located adjoining the present site of Rolla, and here erected the first house in that settlement. His wife died in September, 1859, having born a family of ten children, of which Annie J. was the sixth child.

In the early part of 1882 she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which she was a member at the time of her death. Her home has always been open to the ministers of her church, who have always found a welcome there. She was a loyal and ardent supporter of the church, one of her last deeds being the donor of the new basement under the church, also a new communion set.

For many years she was a teacher in the Sunday School, and was always loved by her pupils. She was president of the Ladies' Aid until her health began to fail, about a year ago. Sister Webber lived a consistent Christian life, devoted to her home and church. She was a faithful and loving wife and mother.

During the past few months she has been confined near her home, on account of ill health. Her sudden going was a great shock to the whole community, who thought that she was in better health than she had been for some time. But she has often expressed her desire to go in this very way. Friday night about nine o'clock she was stricken with acute indigestion. Physicians were called in and about six A. M. Saturday, she awoke and talked to her son, Henry, about Christmas presents, and six-thirty, "she was not, for God took her."

She leaves to mourn her departure one son, Henry Webber, of Galatia; one daughter, May Olive Burns, of Thompsonville, Illinois; four grandchildren, Ward, Margaret, and Eugene Webber, and Jackson Burns; three brothers and one sister, George E. Webber, of Willow Brook, California; A. J. Webber, of St. Louis, Missouri; A. F. Webber, Newburg, Missouri; Mattie Dunham, of Edgar Springs, Missouri.

Those who attended the funeral from a distance were W. ?. Webber and wife, and son, Gates, of St. Louis, Missouri; A. J. Webber, of St. Louis, and A. F. Webber, of Newburg, Missouri, and a host of other relatives and friends.

The funeral services were conducted in the Methodist Episcopal Church of Galatia, Illinois, in charge of Pastor B. H. Batson, assisted by Rev. J. W. McNeal, of Carbondale, Illinois, and Rev. J. E. Shaffer, of Pinckneyville, Illinois, both former pastors.

The interment was made in the Webber Camp Ground."

Rolla Herald (Rolla, Missouri)
17 Oct 1878, Thu

Married.

At the Baptist church in Rolla, on Sunday night, Oct. 13th, 1878, by Rev. Joseph Walker, Mr. SAMUEL J. SKEET and Miss MARIAN MASKELL, both of Forepaugh's traveling Circus and Menagerie.

In this city, at the residence of the bride's parents, on Thursday evening, October 10th, 1878, by Rev. J. Addison Whitaker, Mr. A. C. WEBER and Miss CELESTIA G. MELL.

The nuptials of this happy young couple was a quiet and pleasant affair, as but few beside their most intimate friends were invited. The parlor was crowded, with both young and old, and to judge from the merry laugh and smiling faces of the invited assembly, they were equally as happy as the bride and groom. At a few minutes past eight the bride's maids, Miss May Turner and Miss Ellen Weber, accompanied by the groomsmen, Mr. Fred Kesweter and Chas. McCrae, took their position on the floor, immediately followed by the bride and groom, when the Rev. J. Addison Whitaker pronounced them man and wife. After the congratulations were over with the guests were invited to partake of as fine a spread of the good things of this earth as ever enjoyed by mortal man. Among those present we noticed Mr. John Weber and wife, Mr. A. S. Long and wife, Capt. Stiff, wife and daughter, Mr. S. B. Rowe and wife, Mr. W. E. Weber and wife, Mr. David Branson and wife, Mr. Chas. Roehs, wife and daughter, Mrs. Minnie and daughters, Mr. N. Weber and wife, Mr. Wm. Fort and wife, Dr. Cady, Rev. Mr. Whitaker, wife and daughter, and Mr. Sam. Kauffman and sisters.

"Lum." we wish you and your beautiful bride a happy journey through this life, and should any troubles befall you it is our hope that they be "little ones."

David L. Yowell was born at Vienna, Maries County, Mo., on January 10th, 1869, making him at the time of his death 49 years, 3 months and 4 days old. When a small boy he came with his parents, William Yowell and wife, to Phelps County, and settled near Edgar Springs. He united in marriage with Miss Minnie Weber, of Edgar Springs, and to this union eight children were born, seven of whom: Rowe M., William Elijah, Paul Albert, Mary Louise, Blanche Edward, Evelyn Henrietta and John Henry Yowell, with their mother, survive. He is also survived by one brother, Henson Yowell, of Newburg.

Mr. Yowell was one of our well-to-do farmers. He was a member of the Methodist Church at Edgar Springs, a good citizen, a good neighbor, and a loving husband and father. He was held in highest regard by all who knew him as being an honest upright man.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. S. Hanby, of the Rolla Methodist Church Saturday, and interment took place at the Smith cemetery. A large circle of relatives, friends and neighbors mourn his loss.

Sun Stereotyper Claims a Lovely Bride at Pomona

THE night force of the San Bernardino Sun, particularly the composing and stereotype room groups, are interested in the surrender to General Dan Cupid's maneuvers, of Arthur F. Weber Jr., stereotyper, who claimed a lovely bride, at a home wedding in Pomona on Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Glover of 427 West Alvarado street, gave their daughter Mary Roberta in marriage, with a company of relatives and friends present. The bride was given into the groom's keeping by her father, and the service was read by Rev. G. M. Gardner of Claremont, the day being the anniversary of the marriage of the bride's parents.

The bride is the granddaughter of the late J. B. Glover of Redlands, for years chairman of the board of supervisors of San Bernardino county. She is a graduate of the Pomona high school which the groom also attended, the romance growing out of that acquaintance there. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Weber of Creswell, Oregon.

The home for the Sunday afternoon ceremony was decorated in pink and white fall asters and fern.

Before the service, Cecil Stewart, cousin of the bride, sang "O Promise Me" (de Koven) and "All For You," accompanied by his wife who also played the wedding march.

The bride was gowned in eggshell georgette over white satin and carried a bouquet of coral rosebuds and lilies-of-the-valley.

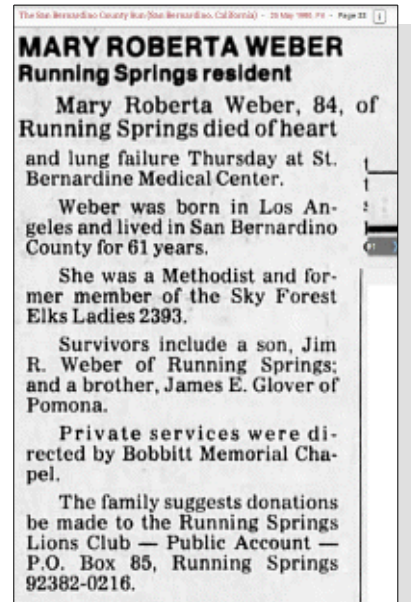

Mr. and Mrs. Weber left for a short wedding trip after which they will make their home in San Bernardino. Mrs. Weber's going-away costume was navy blue georgette with hat and accessories to match.

Present at the ceremony were: Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lowry, Glover Lowry, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lowry, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Becker and Miss Polly Henry, all of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. George Weber, of Pasadena; Mrs. F. A. Armstrong and Beth Armstrong, of Riverside; Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lewis, of San Bernardino; Miss Emily Kemp, J. E. Glover, brother of the bride; and Frank Matthys, of Pomona; and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Williams, of Claremont.

Obituary.

EDGAR SPRINGS, Mo., July 31, 1897.
Died, July 7th, 1897, near Edgar Springs, Mo., on Wednesday evening at 8:25 o'clock, little Florence Grace, daughter of D. L. and Minnie Yowell. She was 4 years and 10 months old.

One more soul has crossed the river,
One more soul from sorrow free,
One more angel now in heaven,
Waiting there to welcome me.

When the stars were bright in heaven,
Florence's spirit took its flight,
She is now among the angels,
And she wears a robe of white.

Darling Florence is with the angels,
Wreaths of glory deck her brow,
Joining in the heavenly chorus--
Florence is an angel now.

She has left this world of sorrow,
She no more will suffer pain,
Though we miss her, oh, so sadly,
We'll not wish her here again.

Dearest Florence, our loved darling,
How we miss thee none can tell,
But our Savior took thee from us,
And we know that all is well.

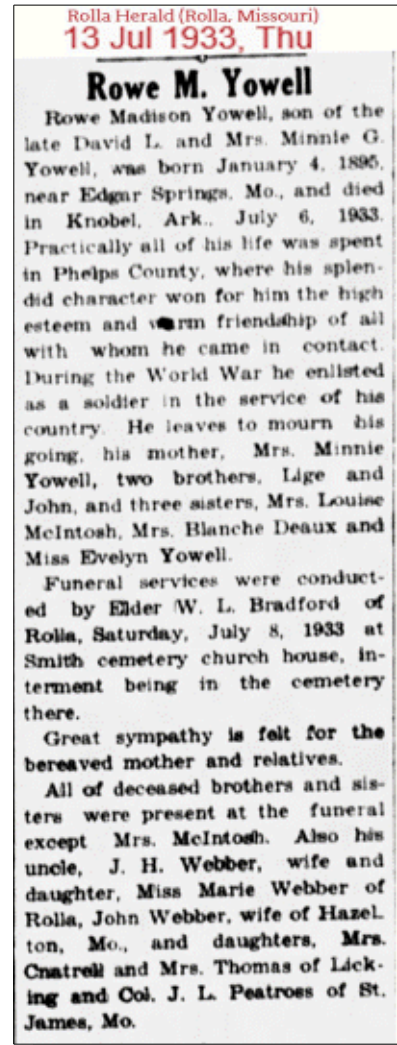

Now our home is lonely, Florence,
As the days drag slowly by,
Yet we know by patient waiting,
We will meet you bye and by.

Oh, how sweet will be the meeting,
On that bright and happy shore,
Meeting there our darling loved ones,
Who has only gone before.

A RELATIVE.

J. M. DEAUX

Joseph Michael Deaux was born at Niagara, Wisconsin, December 17, 1901 and died at Kalamazoo, Mich., March 15, 1937, being 35 years, 2 months and 28 days old at the time of his death.

Besides his wife he leaves to mourn his death his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Deaux of Rhineland, Wis., two brothers, Stafford of Sturgeon Bay, Wis., and Forest of Kalamazoo, Mich., and two sisters, Mrs. Ed J. Mayo, Marinette, Wis., and Mrs. Volmar G. Bird of Sturgeon Bay, Wis.

Joseph Deaux was married to Blanche Edward Yowell at Paw Paw, Mich., June 12, 1929.

On coming to Michigan the subject of this sketch was employed as paper maker—vegetable parchment, at Kalamazoo. During the depression he was unemployed for a time during which he came to West Point, returning to his former position at the request of the firm when business improved, and where he labored up to the time of his sickness and death.

During his stay at West Point he made a host of friends who regarded him as an exemplary young man with many fine qualities.

The afflicted wife and his relatives have the sympathy of all who came to know Joseph and to know him as a friend.

The funeral took place from what is known as the Smith Church and interment took place in the cemetery closeby.

The many beautiful flowers on the part of his many friends were but a faint expression of their love and esteem.

THE ROLLA HERALD
APRIL 24, 1919.

HENRY STIFF WEBER.

Readers in Rolla were advised Saturday night of the sudden death of Henry Stiff (Polk) Weber, which occurred at 10:30 o'clock that evening, April 19th, 1919, in St. Louis. He was at a dance at the Liederkrantz Club, given by the Kappa Epsilon Fraternity. While dancing he complained of feeling badly, and stopped and went to a chair and sat down, where he died a few minutes later.

Henry Stiff Weber was born at Edgar Springs, in this county, October 23, 1895. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Weber. When a small boy he came with his parents to Rolla to live, and then later went with his parents to St. Louis to make their home. About seven ago he secured employment at the Mechanics-American National Bank in that city. At the time of his death he was assistant collection teller for that great institution. During the summer of 1918 he entered the service of his country, and was sent to Camp McArthur for training, where he rose to the rank of Corporal, afterwards he was transferred to the Officers Training School. He was mustered out in December, and was at once reinstated to his position in the bank.

Henry Weber was a young man of splendid habits and fine ability. Altho working every day at the bank he attended a law school at night, and was making splendid progress in his studies. He was always a gentleman, kind and considerate to every one. He was a great comfort to his home, and was very popular with all of his associates.

Besides his parents he is survived by his brothers, Wm. LeRoy Weber, of San Antonio, Texas, and Gates Weber, of St. Louis, and one sister, Mrs. Thorp Boyd, of Chicago, all of whom were present at his funeral except Mrs. Boyd. MRS. THORPE H BOYD

Mrs. Thorpe H. Boyd passed away from this life at the Rolla Hospital last Friday evening, March 27th, 1925. Mrs. Boyd came to Rolla a little over two weeks ago, and a few days later went to the Rolla Hospital where she underwent an operation. She was thought to be recovering until a few hours before her death, when the turn came for the worse and she expired. Her death is most sad. She was young and vivacious. She is survived by a loving husband and three little children, the youngest hardly three months old.

Mrs. Boyd was formerly Miss Annie Lillian Weber, daughter of W. E. Weber and of Elizabeth Weber. She was born at Edgar Springs, in Phelps county on the 15th of October 1897. She came with her parents to Rolla, where she grew up and later moved with them to St. Louis. She united in marriage with Mr. Thorpe H. Boyd, of Chicago, Ill., July 30th 1915. Her husband and her three children, Thorpe, Spencer and infant baby Edwina, survive her. She is also survived by her parents and her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Evans, of Rolla, also two brothers, Roy Weber, of Taft, Texas and Gates Weber, of St. Louis. She had many friends, her genial, pleasant disposition won friends wherever she

Sunday afternoon from the Methodist Church in this city by the pastor, Rev. H. P. Hunter. Many friends were present and the floral offerings were very beautiful.

Those present from out of town were her father, W. E. Weber, of St. Louis, her brothers Roy, of Taft, Texas and Gates Weber and wife and little daughter Mary, of St. Louis; her husband Thorpe Boyd of Chicago, and his mother, Mrs. Frank Fritts, and her husband of Creal Springs, Ill., the deceased's uncle, John Evans, wife and two children, of St. Louis, her cousins Misses Doris and Louise Lawson, Springfield, Mo. and a friend Lawrence Christopher, of St. Louis.

Many friends sympathize with the bereaved relatives.

Insurance executive

Gene A. Webber , a retired vice president and comptroller of Maryland Casualty Co., died Friday of cancer at the Greater Baltimore Medical Center.

The 84-year-old Timonium resident began his career with the insurance company in Houston in 1938, leaving in 1947 to operate an automobile dealership with his brother-in-law in California. In 1949, he rejoined Maryland Casualty and moved to Baltimore. He retired in 1974.

He was born and reared in Galatia, Ill., graduating from high school there in 1926. He attended college for a year then left for Texas, where he worked in the chicken-processing industry during the Depression.

In retirement, he learned needlepoint and won numerous awards for his handiwork at the Maryland State Fair in Timonium.

"We figured he took up needlepoint because he was an !c accountant and needlepoint is so precise," said daughter Paula Gene Webber of Randallstown.

In 1934, he married the former Mary Willie Barnes of Fort Worth, Texas. He was a member of the Havenwood Presbyterian Church.

Services will be private.

In addition to his daughter and wife, he is survived by another daughter, Leah A. Scott of Timonium; three grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

The family suggested memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society, P.O. Box 43025, Baltimore 21236-0025

Divorce action on the couple had been completed and Mrs. Dablemont had returned to the home southeast of Andover to pick up her belongings.

He was predeceased by his son, Michael David Cantrell, and siblings Leonard Cantrell, Doris Fowler, Gloria Jackson, and Thomas Cantrell. He retired at age 50 from Nevada Sheet Metal after more than 25 years. He was union president for over 20 years. His proudest accomplishment was the huge copper hood over the Squaw Valley Lodge fireplace. After he retired he travelled with Ruth and went hunting or fishing wherever he could. He made many visits back to Missouri especially during wild turkey hunting season. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that you donate to the charity of your choice.

Vernon graduated from Licking High School in 1946. He was an outstanding basketball player. He served from August 3, 1946 until December 3, 1947 the United States Army, stationed in Japan. He married Elizabeth Muriel "Betty" Bridges on November 25, 1950. They had one daughter, LaVerne Rose.

He gave his life to Christ in the early 1950's and served God until his death. Attending First Christian Church, Vernon and Betty taught the High School Christian Endeavor kids every Sunday night, took them on trips, to picnics, fishing and entertained them in their home after football games. Vernon carried the down box for Houston football games for 50 years and didn't miss any games until the last few years. He also ran the time clock for local basketball games.

Except for a short time when they lived in Waterloo, Iowa, Betty and Vernon lived in Houston, MO until their poor health forced them to move to Springfield, MO to live with their daughter. He worked at International Shoe in the cutting department until it closed in 1963. He then did construction work in St. Louis, returning on weekends to his family in Houston, always with a gift for Betty. He eventually went to work at HD Lee as parts manager until he retired. After he retired he and Betty helped their daughter with her cake, catering, and cookie business in Springfield, until poor health forced them to quit.

Vernon's family and friends will remember how much he enjoyed hunting and being an avid fisherman. He and Betty hosted many fish fries for them. For years he had up to three gardens and shared the produce with many in Houston.

BROWNSVILLE, TX.-- Lorraine Mayer passed away Monday, June 6, 2011 at her home.

She was surrounded by her plants and flowers from her garden, her favorite caged birds, and her 14 year old dog, Molly.

Until 3 months ago the 92 year old lady was still driving her domestic help to appointments, going to HEB on Central Blvd ("where everyone is so nice") and she was often at Tony's Nursery buying plants for her yard.

Her husband of 68 years, James L. Mayer passed away in 2008.

Lorraine set a perfect example of loving others and being contented with her life.

Thanks go to her extended family of her home, Cisco and Elena. Special appreciation is for Dr. Roberto Robles and his caring ways.

Looking back over Lorraine 's life it is true-she never said an unkind word about anyone. She was a perfect example of love and kindness.

At a future date upon the passing of Molly, Lorraine 's and Jimmy's cremains along with Molly's will be buried at Mont Meta cemetery.

Memorials can be made to the Gladys Porter Zoo, 500 Ringgold St., Brownsville, TX. 78520.

Thorpe Henry Boyd Jr. was my grandfather, he born on the 4 June 1919 in Chicago and died on the 12 September 1969. He was buried at Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery in St. Louis Missouri. His second wife, Betty Boyd (born 6 April 1920) I believe may be Thomas's mother. She died in 1994 in Chesterfield, Missouri and was buried beside him.

My grandmother, Mary Ridge Boyd (born in Massachusetts 1915) was an army nurse from Boston and was married to Thorpe briefly. She told me he was an Air Force test pilot and I think they may have been stationed somewhere together in San Antonio TX but I'm not certain. They split after my mother, Deanna Helen Boyd was born in 1944. He lost contact with my mother and grandmother after he remarried Betty. My mother never had contact with Thorpe during her life and has never met her half siblings.

My mother is currently in New York Presbyterian Hospital suffering from heart failure and would like to get in contact with any half brothers or sisters she may have. Please email npattirane@hotmail.com for further info.

General Notes: Betty Joan Gooch Lilly, 83, passed away on September 28, 2015 at Medical Center Hospital in Odessa, Texas. She was born on July 8, 1932 in Muskogee, Oklahoma to Nicholas Paul and Clarkie Katherine Evans Gooch.

Betty grew up in Haskell, Oklahoma, San Diego, California, and Andrews, Texas. She graduated from Andrews High School in Andrews, Texas in 1950.

Betty married L.O. Lilly in 1950 in Andrews, Texas. They were happily married for 65 years. Over the years, Betty raised five kids, living in almost every town in West Texas. She volunteered as a Den Mother for the Cub Scouts of America and a Troop Leader for the Girl Scouts of America for 22 years. She also worked at GSA for eight years, honored for her service as Outstanding Volunteer for 1986. Betty participated in the Odessa Progressive Garden Club. In the 1990s, she assisted AIDS victims, volunteering for the Permian Basin Aids Coalition. Betty was a member of the Sherwood Church of Christ.

Betty was most proud of her family. She wrote not long ago to her son, "I loved being a Mother and loved my babies." She was a loving mother not only to her five children, but helped to raise her grandkids, great-grandkids, her kids' friends— to anyone who needed a motherly touch. Betty also tirelessly volunteered at the churches she attended, helping with Bible studies, food pantries, and visiting the elderly. Betty's efforts with the Permian Basin Aids Coalition helped AIDS victims at a time when few people would. Her fondest memories outside of family were of the times she worked (she didn't consider it work) at the Permian Basin Girl Scouts Council. Coordinating cookie sales, getting the girls to Mitre Peak, accompanying the troop to Savannah, building a campfire, mentoring young women who still look up to Betty this day— Betty worked countless hours with her long-time friend, Doris Schiller, to help girls serve God, country, and others and to live with grace, courage and self-respect. And to have fun.

Betty was preceded in death by her foster son, Tommy Matthews, her son, David Wayne Lilly, her sister, Billie Bess Gooch, her brother, Paul Leon Gooch, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gooch.
