Charleston, MO Newspaper:

Quoting from Mary Eliza Crane Hendrix Obituary:

It is with sadness we are called upon to chronicle the death of Mrs. Mary Eliza Hendrix, who passed away Nov. 19, 1897, at the home of her son, James Hendrix, in Cedar Bluff township Ripley Co., this state.

Sister Hendrix was born June 22nd 1829, in the state of Pennsylvania, making her a little over 68 years of age at the time of her death, at the age of 8 years she was brought by her parents to Tennessee, where they lived until 1868.

Her maiden name was Mary Eliza Crane. She was united in marriage to William M. Hendrix, March 15, 1849, and by this union 8 children were born to them. They moved to Kentucky in 1868 and again to Missouri in 1882.

Descendants of Josiah M. CRANE

She was converted very young and early attached herself to the Methodist church, living in that church for over 54 years.

Her husband was called to his reward in 1890 and she was left to run the rest of her course alone. The life was a standing proof of the keeping power of the Son of God.

She was esteemed and loved very highly by all who knew her, and although a sufferer for the last few years of her life, she tried to bear it with Christian fortitude.

We do not feel called upon to weep over her departure for she has flown beyond pain and sorrow, to the haven of rest. Her grasp of her duty to God and man was not speculation, but real. She found her duty to her family and her neighbor by close communion with her God. Of her abundant entrance above, she felt secure and was ready and waiting for the summons from on high.

Her children have lost their dearest and best earthly friend, but she has gained eternity.

Her Christian character, her motherly advice and her godly example will be missed by all who knew her, but her influence upon those with whom she came into contact, will never die.

She has met the companion of her youth, and may there be a family reunion at last around the throne above. Death has lost its terror to the faithful, it is but a shadow.

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battles fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last"

1940 Elsie says she's widowed. However I can't find any death certificate for Rolla between 1930-1940. There is a Rolla Carl Duncan born 11/8/1893 - 8/16/1960 in Richmond, Ray County, Missouri. The birthdate matches with census. This Rolla's death certificate doesn't really hold any other clues except it lists his FATHER as "Elsie Duncan"

181. Nanette Hodges CRANE [3589] (*James Bennett (Dr.)*³, *James Madison Sommerville Dr.*², *Josiah M.*¹) was born on 11 May 1912 in Kilgore, Gregg County, Texas, died on 26 Feb 2010 in Austin, Travis County, Texas at age 97, and was buried on 5 Mar 2010 in Kilgore City Cemetery, Kilgore, Gregg County, Texas.

General Notes: Services for Mrs. Nannette Crane Wickham, 97, of Austin, formerly of Kilgore will be two p.m. Friday, March 5, 2010, at the First Presbyterian Church of Kilgore with the Reverend Larry Tyler officiating. Burial will follow in Kilgore Cemetery. Mrs. Wickham died Friday, February 26, 2010, in Austin, Texas.

She was born May 11, 1912, Kilgore, Texas to Dr. James Bennett Crane and Lucy Ethridge Brown Crane. Dr. Crane was the only Physician in Kilgore until the East Texas Oil Boom. He was idolized by Nannette and known to her as "Papa." Nannette was a fifth generation Texan who was raised with her three sisters and two brothers. Nannette loved the adventure of school and her favorite past time was reading. Schoolwork was expected to be completed at first by the light of kerosene lamps, then by gasoline lamps, and finally by electricity, when Kilgore had its own electrical power generator. She attended Kilgore Public Schools and Henderson High School. Mrs. Wickham graduated Magna Cum Laude in 1928 from Texas Women's University earning baccalaureate degrees in Math and Chemistry.

Nannette's intent was to continue on to medical school and then join Papa's practice, but the Great Depression did not permit. Then the East Texas oil boom arrived in Kilgore. The town changed literally over a weekend. Dr. Crane built Crane Memorial Hospital to accommodate the accident victims that arrived regularly from the fields. Nannette worked at the hospital as the Hospital administrator.

On November 9, 1935 Nannette Hodges Crane married an Oklahoma Sooner, in the living room of her parents home, named William Kenneth Wickham. Mrs. Wickham was a loving, caring mother in whose home Classical music was highly valued, discussed, and performed. Nannette played the piano and violin.

The Wickham's owned and operated Wickham Packing Company and after the death of Mr. Wickham, Nannette took an active role in the management of that business. Nannette later worked in the Superintendent's office of the Kilgore Independent School District.

A Christian atmosphere permeated the Wickham's home. Nannette's parents were members of the First Presbyterian Church of Kilgore before her birth and she had been a member of the church literally all of her life.

Nannette was named First Lady of Kilgore, 1960. She was a founder of the Kilgore Public Library and a founding member of the Paul Dinkins Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Mrs. Wickham was a member of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas, National Society of Colonial Dames, Kilgore Garden Club, Kilgore Professional Women's Club and a past PTA President of Kilgore High School.

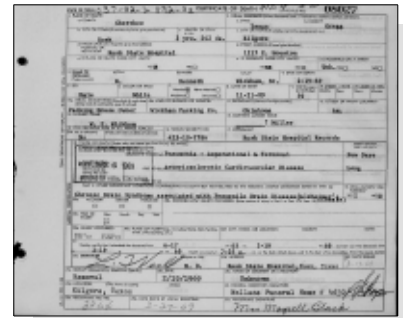

She is survived by her son, Ken Wickham, Jr. and his wife, Bev of Austin, Texas; two grandsons, Kenneth Wickham, III and his wife, Tami of Montgomery, Texas and Christopher Wickham of Austin; two great-grandsons, James Christopher Wickham and Evan Stockton Wickham; several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband and siblings.

The family will receive friends at Rader Funeral of Kilgore, Thursday evening between four and six p.m.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1937.

THE BRYAN EAGLE,

MISS KATHERINE PIERCE
IS BRIDE OF WILLIAM
H. CRANE IN NAVASOTA

Miss Katherine Pierce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Pierce, who has made many friends in Bryan during the past several years while connected with the agricultural adjustment administration work at the A. & M. College, became the bride of William H. Crane of Bryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Crane of Franklin, Wednesday evening in Navasota at 8 o'clock in a quiet but beautiful home ceremony, with Rev. W. N. Purcell of Wharton reading the impressive service in the presence of the immediate families.

White tapers in floor standards cast a soft gleam over the setting. The improvised altar was attractively arranged at the far end of the reception room, and ferns formed a background for white chrysanthemums in tall floor baskets. Mrs. H. H. Knox, former music teacher of the bride was at the piano to play the wedding music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome traveling suit of black crepe with accents of contrast given by her silver grey satin blouse. Her short boxed coat was fur trimmed, and her smart black hat was overlaid with a small veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of white split carnations and sweet peas.

"The maid of honor, Miss Daisy Love Harrison, was gowned in a chic dubonnet frock of crepe, and her accessories were in a harmonizing shade of blue. Her corsage was of split carnations. Little Miss Mary Katherine Dyer, who was ringbearer, was dressed in lovely black velveteen trimmed with Irish lace, and she carried the ring on a white satin pillow. Serving the groom as best man was Mr. Curry of San Angelo.

"After the ceremony the guests were invited into the dining room, where Mrs. Knox presided over the tea service. The table, laid with lace, was centered with the two-tiered wedding cake, and white chrysanthemums lent their charm as decorations at vantage points in the room.

The bride, a popular member of the young society set in both Navasota and Bryan, attended Baylor University. Mr. Crane is a graduate of Sam Houston State Teachers College at Huntsville, and is now employed with the C.I.T. The couple will make their home in Bryan December 1, after a wedding trip.

Burial will follow at Linn Flat Cemetery in Trawick on County Road 929.

Harold Bert Neill was born to Gladys and John Neill on November 14, 1923 in Trawick.

He left this world for his heavenly home on Sunday, December 2, 2012.

Some of his proudest accomplishments were on the basketball court where he was a star player for Cushing High School. Harold was awarded a full scholarship in basketball by Stephen F. Austin State Teacher's College, where he was the first freshman player to make the starting five in basketball.

The attack on Pearl Harbor intervened and he was drafted into the U.S. Army. Before leaving for his military assignment, he married his high school sweetheart, Doris "Dot" Whitaker and they were married for 69 and a half years. He achieved the rank of Master Technical Sergeant while serving as recreation director in the Panama Canal Zone.

After the war, he and Dot settled in Houston, where he attended Houston Technical College to learn watch and clock repair. Having finished his studies, he worked at the college, became the owner, and taught there for 47 years. One of the great joys of his career was teaching disabled students and he taught generations of watchmakers before retiring at the age of 70.

Harold was a charter member of the American Watchmakers-Clockmakers Institute, charter member of the Texas Watchmakers Association, as well as being very active in the local chapter, having served in all offices and as secretary for many years. He served in state TWA as first and second vice president and as president from 1973-1975. He also served on the board of directors of both state and local guilds. He was awarded lifetime membership in the Texas Watchmakers Association in 1991. Many former students stayed in touch with him and he was very proud of the many lives he touched and the successful watchmakers he trained.

After his retirement, Harold and Dot began renovating the Mitchell family home in Trawick that had belonged to Harold's grandparents. The Neills lived there for 18 years before relocating in 2011 to Oak Ridge North Texas to be near their children and grandchildren.

Harold loved to hunt and fish with the Neill men and friends and always looked forward to their trips to the Guadalupe River, where he held the post of chief barbecue cook. No one's barbecue was as good as Popaws.

In his later years, he enjoyed watching sports and judge shows on TV, talking on the phone with relatives and visits from the grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Harold believed that there is nothing in life more important than family. He looked forward to family reunions and cemetery homecomings and no excuses for non-attendance were accepted.

Harold is survived by his wife, Dot and four children, Jody Neill, Tandy Neill, Doug Neill and wife Carol, Jeanie Radford and husband Bill.

He was predeceased by his parents, all his aunts and uncles, sister Oneta Box (FAG memorial 24640664), several much-loved cousins including double first cousins Tommy and Mitchell Neill, and brother-in-law Richard Williams.

Other survivors include his sister Quitau Williams, brothers Jerry Neill and wife Sue, Marion Neill and wife Patty, sister-in-law Mildred McCormack and numerous nieces and nephews. The Neills have four granddaughters, Tessa Vick, Dr. Rachel Nichols, Robin Cornelius and Grace Neill, ive grandsons listed below as pallbearers and 10 great-grandchildren, all of whom mourn the passing of their beloved Popaw.

Thelma B. Mims

Services will be Saturday for Thelma Bernice Mims, a long-time champion of students who worked 30 years for the county Office of Education in a library for visually impaired students. She died July 26 in Santa Cruz. She was 75. She was born in Seminole, Okla., and moved to California with her family in 1938, graduating from Oakdale High School and Modesto Junior College. She attended Glad Tidings Bible Institute in San Francisco and moved to Santa Cruz when the college relocated to Santa Cruz County. It is now called Bethany College and is in Scotts Valley. She worked in the library there while attending college.

She earned a library degree from San Jose State College in 1956 and returned to Bethany, working in the library until 1963, when she was hired at the Santa Cruz County Public Library. She worked for the county's public library system for five years before joining the Santa Cruz County Office of Education.

Wedding Photo

She worked for the Office of Education from 1968 until 1998, mostly in the Braille Library, friends say.

Superintendent Diane Siri called her a "silent hero."

"Some people on the front lines get a lot of attention," Siri said. "But it is often those behind the scenes who quietly go about doing all they can that make so much of a difference. She was one who noticed when someone needed some extra help and her biggest pride was when a student succeeded."

She saw to it that children had access to books and other materials by transcribing those materials and overseeing volunteers who do so.

Friends say she was an avid reader and was interested in many crafts, including early American rug braiding. She made many beautiful rugs.

She was married to Samuel Mims from 1962 to 1971. The couple had no children. She was an active member of Aptos Christian Fellowship.

She is survived by her mother, Bella Strawhorn of Modesto; a sister, Ella Strawhorn of Hurst, Texas; one aunt; and many cousins. Her father and two brothers died before her.

General Notes: findagrave:

Daniel "Dan" Cloa Hendrix was born September 17, 1939, as the second son of Cloa and Nora Hendrix on Bug Point CO. He died at his home in Farmington NM following a brief illness on Thursday, May 6, 1993 in the arms of his beloved wife, Beverly.

His parents were pinto bean farmers who farmed as partners with his Uncle Clyde and Aunt Jo. When Dan was four years old, his older brother, Raymond, died, leaving Dan to carry the banner of being the oldest male child. About this time the family moved to Chandler AZ, where they lived for a year. After the family home burned to the ground, they returned to Dove Creek. This was Dan's home for the rest of his life.

During his adolesvent years, Dan developed a special relationship with Grandpa Hendrix. Grandpa would take Dan and his favorite cousin, Randy camping, fishing and hunting. Grandpa taught Dan the love of the outdoors, and the true meaning of sportsmanship.

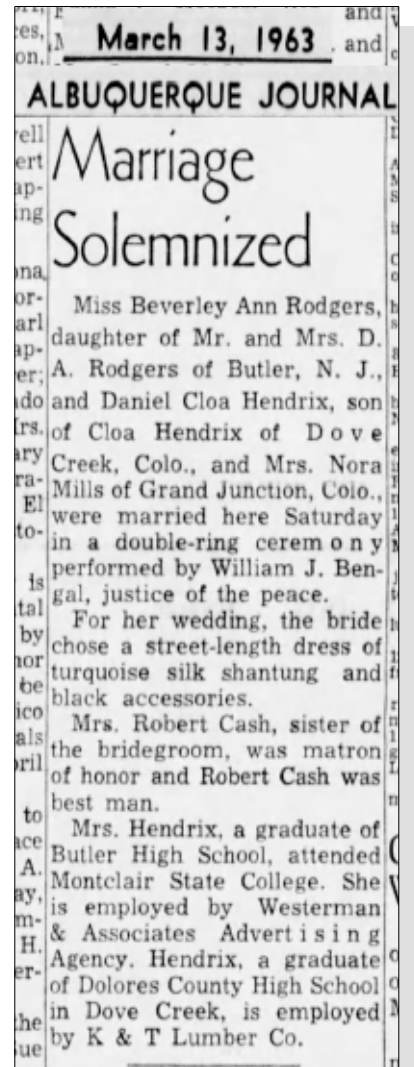

In his high school years, Dan was a friend to all, and a very competitive team player. He excelled in baseball, basketball and football. During his last days, Dan received calls and cards from many of those he knew from High School. Those acts of kindness gave him and his family comfort. One special card came from his high school football coach, Coach O'Hagen - arriving just before Dan lost his speech. O'Hagen said of all the boys he had coached over the years, Dan had been the best defensive linebacker he had ever coached. It was one of the last correspondence that his wife read to him.

Dan graduated from high school in 1957. From there he worked at a "what type of work was available" - first hauling uranium ore to the mills, and later on a seismograph crew. After a couple of years Dan enlisted in the US Army, where he served for two years in the active service and four years as a reserve. He was first stationed in Fort Lewis WA, where his cousin Randy was also stationed.

After the service, he worked for Stearns-Rogers in Moab UT, and in Las Vegas NV. It was in Moab where he met the lovely lady Beverly Ann Rogers. She became his life's love. Dan moved to Albuquerque NM to be with his sister Nora Cash and her husband Bob. Beverly was sharing a home with Dan's sister Lela, and the friendship grew deeper. On March 9, 1963, the couple were married in Albuquerque.

Dan and his wife lived and worked across the nation. He worked in Durango CO, the state of Washington, and as a dispatcher for Rio Grande Steel in Albuquerque. The family bought a home at Northwest Valley, and two daughters were born.

In 1969 the family moved to New Jersey, and another daughter was born. In 1977 the family returned to New Mexico, and made a home in Farmington. Dan started working for Olman-Heath, which later became Enertek, where he was employed for 16 years.

Wedding

Descendants of Josiah M. CRANE

In the last two years, Dan quit playing softball and took up golf. His nephew, Shawn, said it was humorous that his Uncle Dan had always thought golf was a silly game, but it had become one of Dan's favorites. He also enjoyed bowling and continued to enjoy outdoor sports.

Dan enjoyed good health, and was a very strong man who kept his body in good condition. It was this that allowed him to stay with his beloved family until his death. It had been Dan's wishes that he not have to be taken from his home to meet death, and he displayed a strength beyond what most can imagine as he moved through the last week of his life.

Dan is survived by his wife Beverly; daughters, Mina Sloan of Colorado Springs CO, Zena Hendrix of Socorro NM, and Dani Hendrix of Farmington NM; his sisters, Reva Cash of Albuquerque NM and Lela Holmes of Farmington NM; his brother Bill Hendrix of Grand Junction CO; his mother Nora Mills of Fruita CO; Aunts, Jo Peterson of Farmaington NM, and Reva Long of Mancos CO; two granddaughters, Cassie and Lorie Sloan of CO

He was preceded in death by his father, Cloa Hendrix, Brother Raymond Hendrix, and his beloved cousin Randy Hendrix.

Funeral services were held Monday, May 10, 1993 at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Farmington. Burial was at the Greenlawn Cemetery.

GLENN'S FERRY | Dennis Howard Cockerham , 53, of Glens Ferry, ID, passed away on Feb. 7, 2016 after being flown to a SLC, UT hospital and undergoing cardiac care. Dennis was born Oct. 10, 1962 in Concord, CA to Clyde and Joyce Cockerham ; the youngest of four children. Soon after, the Cockerham family moved to Olympia, WA. They enjoyed their land with its orchards, animals, and streams. It was a special place for the kids especially, to learn and explore. They later moved to Fairfield, ID.

In school Dennis was a cowboy working on ranches. He rode motorcycles, played football & baseball. Dennis met Christie Micknak from McCall, ID when he lived there briefly in high school. The two soon fell in love. In 1980, at 17, Dennis graduated in Gooding, and Christie in McCall. They married each other in 1981 and attended the College of Southern Idaho together.

Dennis started his first business at 19 and later was a deputy and a police officer. Dennis & Christie had also lived in McCall, Pismo Beach, Gooding, Boise, etc. They both knew the Lord Jesus as their Savior. The two shared their faith, beliefs, and special times together out exploring, hiking, fishing, hunting, boating, jet skiing, riding motorbikes and camping. Married 34 years, Dennis & Christie shared many things besides their love.

Denny appreciated the wonders of God's creation while out fishing, kayak-touring, hunting, golfing, exploring with friends. And with D&C's family members and 14 nieces/nephews, and Denny's older brother Mickey.
